

Spring painting workshop

Enjoy painting outside in the nature near the Beach of Kijkduin. Experience is not necessary. In the flow you will be completely absorbed in making your work of art this afternoon outside. What makes this workshop so special is that we are outside, nature gives you inspiration.

You go home with something beautiful and a touchable memory and when you look at it at home, that feeling of timelessness comes back. So we are not just talking about an afternoon of colorful happiness, but about a beautiful experience that will stay with you. Did you know that you get positive energy from the creative process? Making something that doesn't exist yet gives a happy and good feeling. Never painted? Exciting and wonderful to make your first creation, I'll help you on your way, so put on your naughty shoes and come!
